

Respite Care

This is usually Care for a short period of time, or extra care over a period of time, giving rest and relief for family members who are assisting with the care of their loved ones.